Happenings at Headquarters

January 27, 2005

We send you greetings in the name of Jesus. Time is travelling quickly. We are at the end of another month, and things are going well for the church here. We are in the process of assembling the third quarter Quarterlies, and we will be sending some of them out to the foreign fields as soon as they are ready. The February Advocate was sent out on Monday, and the web site has been updated. The new calendars have also been completed and sent out. Ben is adding a lot of French to the web site with the help of Sister Louiselle from Canada.

We are presently working on the March edition of the Advocate, and we will soon be ready to have it printed. I have not heard back yet from India about the devastation to our people from the Tsunami.

Our weather here is quite changeable. We had an ice storm last Sabbath and tonight the temperature will dive down to the single digits. Earlier this month we had temperatures in the sixties.

I hope this letter finds you well. We wish to thank you for your prayers on our behalf and your consistent support for God's work. Please continue to pray for us.

We really need to pay attention to the events that are now happening in the world. We can see many disasters, wars and rumors of wars. Jesus told us that these things must happen before His return. Let each of us be ready.

Yours in Jesus's name.
